10. Residents can vote for a new planning commission, which they think about a proposed change to connect recreational use to residential areas of focus for vessel use. The special zone would have a special zone for vessel use.

11. Residents will vote on the town's master plan, which would set the direction for future development.

12. Residents will vote on the town's comprehensive plan, which would set the direction for future development.

13. Residents will vote on the town's environmental plan, which would set the direction for future development.

14. Residents will vote on the town's capital plan, which would set the direction for future development.

15. Residents will vote on the town's financial plan, which would set the direction for future development.

16. Residents will vote on the town's administrative plan, which would set the direction for future development.

17. Residents will vote on the town's operational plan, which would set the direction for future development.

18. Residents will vote on the town's maintenance plan, which would set the direction for future development.

19. Residents will vote on the town's capital improvement plan, which would set the direction for future development.

20. Residents will vote on the town's long-range plan, which would set the direction for future development.

21. Residents will vote on the town's short-range plan, which would set the direction for future development.

22. Residents will vote on the town's annual plan, which would set the direction for future development.

23. Residents will vote on the town's monthly plan, which would set the direction for future development.

24. Residents will vote on the town's weekly plan, which would set the direction for future development.

25. Residents will vote on the town's daily plan, which would set the direction for future development.

26. Residents will vote on the town's hourly plan, which would set the direction for future development.

27. Residents will vote on the town's minute plan, which would set the direction for future development.

28. Residents will vote on the town's second plan, which would set the direction for future development.

29. Residents will vote on the town's thousandth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

30. Residents will vote on the town's millionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

31. Residents will vote on the town's billionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

32. Residents will vote on the town's trillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

33. Residents will vote on the town's quadrillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

34. Residents will vote on the town's quintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

35. Residents will vote on the town's sextillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

36. Residents will vote on the town's septillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

37. Residents will vote on the town's octillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

38. Residents will vote on the town's nonillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

39. Residents will vote on the town's decillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

40. Residents will vote on the town's undecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

41. Residents will vote on the town's duodecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

42. Residents will vote on the town's tredecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

43. Residents will vote on the town's quattuordecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

44. Residents will vote on the town's quindecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

45. Residents will vote on the town's sexdecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

46. Residents will vote on the town's septdecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

47. Residents will vote on the town's octodecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

48. Residents will vote on the town's nonadecillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

49. Residents will vote on the town's vigintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

50. Residents will vote on the town's trigintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

51. Residents will vote on the town's sexagintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

52. Residents will vote on the town's septuagintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

53. Residents will vote on the town's octogintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

54. Residents will vote on the town's nonagintillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

55. Residents will vote on the town's centillionth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

56. Residents will vote on the town's milliardth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

57. Residents will vote on the town's milliardth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

58. Residents will vote on the town's milliardth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

59. Residents will vote on the town's milliardth plan, which would set the direction for future development.

60. Residents will vote on the town's milliardth plan, which would set the direction for future development.