ROAD SHOW

TRACE YOUR FAMILY HISTORY!

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2022

9 AM-1 PM MANCHESTER TOWN HALL

Have you run into a brick wall with your family research? Or, are you just getting started and need some guidance? The Connecticut Professional Genealogists Council is once again bringing their Ancestors Road Show to Manchester to provide you with answers to your genealogy questions in a free, one-on-one, 25-minute consultation session. Contact the Town Clerk's office to register and get a questionnaire for submitting the topic(s) you would like to discuss.

The professionals who are volunteering their time are:

Nora Galvin, Certified Genealogist, (Irish research, DNA, Connecticut, US)

Jennifer Zinck, Certified Genealogist, (Connecticut, DNA, Canada, England)

Gregory Thompson (Colonial and Early American, lineage societies)

Alison Matson (Connecticut, Rhode Island, NYC and Ireland)

Linda Carlson (Jewish research, immigration & naturalization, 20th-century military)

Rosemary Leitz (Connecticut, Irish).

Take this opportunity to bring your puzzling genealogical question to a professional for advice.

The Ancestors Road Show sponsor fee goes to the Donna Holt Siemiatkoski Acquisition Fund, a 501(c)(3) arm of CPGC, which supports Connecticut's libraries and societies holding genealogical collections. More information at ctprofgen.org.

ADVANCED REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.
