New Vine Living, serving adult men who are committed to living a sober lifestyle and are ready to take the next step in their recovery journey. Our home is ideal for individuals transitioning out of treatment programs, correctional facilities, or unstable housing who need a supportive, structured environment to rebuild their lives.

We know that recovery is about more than just abstaining — it's about community, purpose, and personal transformation. That's why we've created a space that feels like home. At New Vine Living, residents are welcomed into a warm, respectful, and accountability-based community that encourages peer support, self-growth, and positive change.
